Literature Circle Book Club

All are welcome to join us on January 2nd for our 7 p.m. book club meeting. You may bring any book - even if you have not finished it. We will discuss your favorite or least favorite scenes, how the book relates to your life, what you've learned from the book, the importance of the setting and how you would rate your book on a scale of 1-10 and why.

Books We Think You May Enjoy:

Remarkably Bright Creatures by Shelby Van Pelt "A luminous debut novel about a widow's unlikely friendship with a giant Pacific octopus reluctantly residing at the local aquarium - and the truths she finally uncovers about her son's disappearance 30 years ago." -Adapted from Publisher

The Art Thief: A True Story about Love, Crime and a Dangerous Obsession by Michael Finkel "Carrying out more than two hundred heists over nearly ten years - in museums and cathedrals all over Europe - Breitwieser stole more than 300 objects, until it all fell apart in spectacular fashion." -Adapted from Publisher

The Girl with Seven Names is a memoir by Hyeonseo Lee. According to Samantha Power, a U.S. Representative to the United Nations, "Hyeonseo Lee brought the human consequences of global inaction on North Korea to the world's doorstep. Against all odds, she escaped, survived and had the courage to speak out."

Check out the book club bulletin board adjacent to the front door. We will keep adding book recommendations to the index cards that are sorted there by genre.
