We pray for the following with our siblings across the ELCA:

For areas of the world impacted by ongoing war, conflict, and violence, especially Ukraine, Palestine, Myanmar, and South Sudan...

For refugees, migrants, and detained peoples around the world, including the deportation of Uyghurs out of Thailand...

For Muslim neighbors preparing to begin observance of the holy month of Ramadan...

For access to healthcare and for all who rely on government programs to maintain that access...

For medical research and advances in public health...

For Pope Francis, during his continued hospitalization...

For congregations and their leaders, as they prepare for Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent...

For the body of Christ in all of its diversity...

For Jesus's Transfiguration and for all who seek to be seen and loved for who they truly are...
